

SPECIFIC TOUR POLICIES

Tarabuco & Puka Puka: 2-Day Cultural Experience

These conditions complement Bolivian Full Explorer's general policies and apply specifically to this 2-day community-based experience from Sucre.

1. Reservation and Confirmation

The booking is subject to availability of transportation and the Puka Puka community. A 50% deposit of the total tour price is required to confirm the reservation. The remaining balance must be paid no later than 3 days before departure. A booking is considered confirmed only after the required deposit has been received and Bolivian Full Explorer has confirmed availability.

2. Cancellations and Date Changes

If you need to cancel or request a date change, please notify us by WhatsApp or email as soon as possible.

Cancellation fees:

- More than 72 hours before departure: 20% of the total tour price is retained.
- Between 72 and 24 hours before departure: 80% of the total tour price is retained.
- Less than 24 hours before departure or no-show: 100% of the total tour price is non-refundable.

Date changes are subject to availability of transportation and the community. If non-refundable costs have already been incurred, these may be charged to the traveler.

3. Community Activities

The program includes two traditional learning activities with members of the Puka Puka community. The activities are arranged according to the community program available for the stay and may be related to weaving, music, local language, gastronomy or agriculture. The inclusion of two activities does not mean that all of these options will be provided.

4. Accommodation

The overnight stay is in a local family home in Puka Puka. Accommodation and facilities are very basic and should not be compared with a hotel, lodge or conventional tourist accommodation. Travelers should be prepared for simple rural living conditions and limited comforts.

5. Meals and Dietary Requirements

The program includes 2 lunches, 1 dinner and 1 breakfast. Travelers must inform Bolivian Full Explorer in advance of any food allergies or dietary restrictions. Because meals are prepared in a rural community setting, specific dietary requirements are subject to local availability and cannot always be guaranteed.

6. Transportation and Route

Transportation from Sucre to Puka Puka and return to Sucre is included. This program does not include a sightseeing visit or scheduled stop in Tarabuco. Travel times and road conditions may vary.

7. Changes Due to Local Conditions

The order, timing or content of the program may be adjusted when necessary because of weather, road conditions, community availability or other circumstances beyond reasonable control. When possible, an appropriate alternative will be arranged without changing the essential nature of the experience.

8. Mandatory Travel Insurance

Valid travel insurance is required for all travelers participating in this tour. Each traveler is responsible for arranging appropriate coverage before departure. Travel insurance is not included in the tour price.

9. Health and Personal Responsibility

Travelers must inform Bolivian Full Xplorer before departure of any relevant medical conditions, mobility limitations or other circumstances that may affect participation in a rural community stay.

10. Not Included

Drinks not specified in the program, personal expenses, tips, travel insurance and any service not expressly listed as included are not part of the tour price.

11. Acceptance of Conditions

Payment of the reservation deposit confirms that the traveler has read and accepted these booking, payment and cancellation conditions, including the mandatory travel insurance requirement, the basic nature of the family-home accommodation and the variable nature of the community activities.
